the Pak-German Media Dialogue will become a regular annual feature and would further create better understanding between Pakistan and a strong European actor Germany	Shah Mahmood Qureshi	Former Foreign Minister
The media dialogue would result in better understanding for senior journalists of both the countries – Pakistan and Germany.	Ahsen Iqbal	Deputy Sect. General, PML-N
I returned to Germany well inspired and with a broadband of impressions and informations. the openness of our discussions was impressive and rewarding. I didnt regret any of the many missed hours of sleep...	Theo Koll	ZDF, Auslandsjournal
The discussions were frank and honest and that is how mediapople should discuss issues. Marcus Pindur set the tone of the proceedings by candidly and provocatively telling us how Pakistan is perceived in Germany.the dialogue was interesting and engaging	Rahimullah Yousufzai	Resident Editor, Daily the News International, Peshawar
thank you for the opportunity to participate in the pakistani-german media dialogue. I enjoyed the time with our dear pakistani friends and colleagues very much. It provided me with a new and unique insight about your wonderful country, that will surely have a positive impact on my work here in germany	Jan Marberg	Chief Editor/Chefredakteur, Magazine of the German Army „Y“
It was a perfectly organised event	Ines Zoettl	Teamleiterin/Team Lead Ausland/Foreign Affairs, Financial Times Deutschland, Berlin
It was a truly inspiring time. I am looking forward to continuing those discussions soon	Daniel-Dylan Böhmer	Verantwortlicher Redakteur für Pakistan und Afghanistan, DIE WELT – Editor in charge of Pakistan and Afghanistan
.....impressive days and discussions in Lahore.	Peter Riesbeck	Resortleiter Politik/Head of the resort politics, BERLINER ZEITUNG, Berlin
the two-day interaction offered me insights into many issues and i am grateful to hbf for that	Ejaz Haider	Consulting editor, Weekly Friday times
Thanks for the opportunity. It was an enlightening session	Farah Zia	Editor, The News on Sunday
I agree with what Shah Mehmood Qureshi has said that hopefully this dialogue will become a regular feature.I found the dialogue most helpful.	Omar R Quraishi	Editorial Pages Editor The Express Tribune, Karachi
Hats off to HBS for excellent visualizing such a conference and realizing it both. This success has raised the hope for a follow-up in Berlin next year. Britta and her team did a commendable job while we especially grateful for German journalists for making it so special.	Naveed Ahmad	Investigative Journalist/Academic
